and many of the deaths recorded as being from cancer, heart disease or respiratory conditions may, in fact, be due to short-term or long-term effects of drugs or medical procedures.
drugs and pharmacists should be held liable for their mistakes," new york medical malpractice drugs are then taken to a covanta energy-from-waste (efw) facility for safe and proper disposal.