coming into the united states since the terrible ordeal surrounding heparin revealed some serious deficiencies "pursuing other opportunities" means there is no job waiting for him come monday morning upon completion they will be well prepared for additional post-secondary training or employment ngos play an important role in contributing to better access to drugs and their rational use